BULLETIN

Musical Notes

Welcome to church! Today is Palm Sunday or sometimes called Passion Sunday to denote the beginning of Holy Week. Jesus rode into Jerusalem knowing what lay ahead. People shouted "Hosanna" which meant "save now," and waved palm branches symbolizing goodness and victory. Enter into worship expectantly today. Lift up your shouts of "hosanna" and praises to the King of kings!

Annie Armstrong

The Annie Armstrong drive to support North American Missions continues through April. Please use your marked envelopes, and put "Annie Armstrong" on the memo line.

April 28
at 5:00 &
6:00pm.

Committee Chairs:
Please send your reports to office@branchs.org by April 18.

Please Invite Former Branch's People!

Don't forget to invite your friends and family members who are former members/attenders of Branch's to a special service and brunch for them on April 28th. This is for all those who attended any of our programs. Please contact Paul Kincheloe at paul.kincheloe1122@yahoo.com or Vernon Abbott at vernonabbott@verizon.net if you have questions.

TICKETS now on SALE

...for the Flying Squirrels Game of April 24th. We have reserved seats for the 10:30am game. More tickets can be reserved. Call Dorryce Ann Rudd if you have questions.

Free Spring Concert!

All are invited to the to the Spring Concert of the Jubilation Choir on Tuesday, May 14. We will be taking our bus and going to lunch before the concert. Speak to Pastor Rudd to sign up for the concert and vote for a restaurant.

A Shelter Ministry

We are still collecting these items for the Hillard Shelter:
Juice box or small water bottles
Individually packaged snacks
Individual packs of tissues
Small toys that would appeal to boys or girls (yo-yos, balls, jump ropes).

Boxes for donations are in KH and the Welcome area. Thank you!
